

NAC women take second from Newport to Catalina Island

Changing on the fly

Only twenty-six more miles to go...

Billy prepares the chase boat

After hours of effort, the team crosses the finish line in second place

Trophies, teamwork and tired muscles all seem to fit at the end of a hard day of competition.

Note: Two weeks later, in the final race held in Hawaii, the NAC team beat the team that came in first at Catalina. It was sweet revenge for the hard-working women and a great season finale.
